Key Shift From Traditional Student Teaching to Co-Teaching

Traditional	Co-Teaching
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Mentor takes lead in the beginning.2. Student teachers sits and observes for first few weeks.3. Over time, the student teacher takes the lead in the lessons teaching a few subjects at a time.4. Ends with a solo week of teaching	Co-Planning Co-Teaching Co-Assessment

The TEAM Model

In your first year as mentors, in what ways did you engage your interns in co-planning?

The TEAM Model

Discuss the importance of including the interns in all grade-level planning meetings at RES.

Clinical Residency Co-Teaching Is like...

- A TENNIS MATCH - the mentor and intern each take turns leading the classroom tossing it back and forth seamlessly
- A CAR RACE - where one teacher leads while the other drafts behind learning from the other throughout the day
- A STORY – many characters, settings, plots, problems, and solutions are experienced from August to May

Co-Teaching Strategies/Approaches

- One Teach, One Observe
- One Teach, One Assist
- Station Teaching
- Parallel Teaching
- Supplemental Teaching
- Alternative/Differentiated Teaching
- Team Teaching

The TEAM Model

Which co-teaching strategies did you use the most? Share some examples of the models you established at RES.

The TEAM Model

Share some examples of how you co-assessed your classes. How were the interns able to support you?

The TEAM Model

How do you think establishing the co-teaching model benefited your classroom, especially with regard to students' clarity of teacher roles?

The TEAM Model

In what ways do you feel supported in your role in the Louisiana Tech
Clinical Residency Program?

The TEAM Model

What will you definitely do again and what will you change regarding planning, teaching, and assessment?
